

Hi Everyone,

Next week is officially the end of term one, but

When I closed the dance school due to covid in my family, the intention was to replace these classes in the school holidays. However, I am concerned that for some classes, to go through all the holidays, would not be beneficial to the students (especially the younger ones) who need a holiday break so with that in mind, this is the plan:

Classes held on Monday to Wednesday – 1 Class Owed

No classes the first week of school holidays

Classes to be held 25th to 27th April

Classes held on Thursday to Friday – 2 Classes Owed

No classes the first week of school holidays

Classes to be held 28th to 29th April

Other class will be at a later date (closer to the exams)

There will be some classes who don't need this holiday lesson and will receive an email confirming.

So, to clarify – No dancing in first week of holidays but classes as per Term 1 timetable in the second week (unless email received).

Unfortunately, classes have been very disruptive and exam syllabus work is not cemented in brains as much as normal at this time of year. I will be checking in with all classes and if we think there is anyone not ready for exams then I will contact you.

A Heads Up - Term 2 will see a slightly different timetable on a Wednesday and Thursday as we need to ensure all dancers (i.e. those who currently learn at Tui Glen) get use of the studio as we prepare for the exam.

Thank you to all those who have paid their exam fees. All APDA exams have now been registered. A friendly reminder that NZAMD exam fees payment is due by the 15th May.

Lastly, I am sure this will make some of you SMILE, next week is "BRING A PARENT (or other)" to watch week. I know it has been tough for some not being able to watch class but the children have really benefited from this and it will continue until the exams, so come along next week and see how your dancer(s) have grown.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Have a happy Easter everyone, Caroline & Team
